

Materials and Distribution Operations Career Technical Training Area

Transportation Career Pathway

Materials and Distribution Operations

The Job Corps Materials and Distribution Operations career training program takes 8 to 12 months to complete and requires training in the following subject areas:

- Materials handling and manufacturing
- Inventory control
- Planning
- Manufacturing control
- Operations management

Certification:

Students who complete a Job Corps training program are eligible to receive a nationally recognized certificate of completion.

Steps to certification:

Before completing a Materials and Distribution Operations training program, students should:

- Have the basic math and reading skills necessary to perform the job.
- Complete the core curriculum and pass all written and performance tests.

Average length of training:

8 to 12 months

The salary range for various careers in Materials and Distribution Operations is:

$20,000 to $32,000/year

THE BENEFITS OF JOB CORPS

Industry-recognized certification • Hands-on training and internships • Housing, meals, and basic medical care • Earn while you learn: Biweekly living allowance • Administered by the U.S. Dept. of Labor

What is Job Corps?

- A residential career training program
- Your path to a career in a high-growth industry
- A place to earn your high school diploma or GED
- Career counseling and support after graduation

Career Technical Training programs vary at different Job Corps centers.

Administered by the U.S. Department of Labor, Job Corps is the nation's largest career technical training and education program for students ages 16 through 24. Job Corps is a U.S. Department of Labor Equal Opportunity Employer Program. Auxiliary aids and services are available upon request to individuals with disabilities. TDD/TTY telephone number is (877) 889-5627.